North Central Regional Library

2013 Summer Reading Program Activities

Each summer NCRL plans activities at each branch of the library system around a theme chosen by a National Collaborative Summer Library Program committee. The theme for this summer for children is "DIG INTO READING!" Branch Librarians will develop activities in addition to the special presentations, including storytimes and crafts and a reading challenge for all ages. Every program at the library is free to the public. Be sure to stop by your local branch to see what is scheduled there or peruse the all-branch listings on the back of this newsletter!

AND don't forget to check us out on Facebook!

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS AND PROGRAMS

KNIGHTS OF VERITAS

This non-profit charitable organization specializes in interactive educational demonstrations of medieval arms, armor, combat, knighthood and chivalry. They introduce the Code of Chivalry to modern audiences and pit myth against fact with thrilling demonstrations of historical combat techniques. Exciting hands-on sharing allows the audience to safely handle weapons and try on the armor.

Chelan County P.U.D. Outreach

"Incredible Forces that make our Incredible World" Children and adults will witness and participate in the wonder of centrifugal force, centripetal force, gravitational force and electrical energy.

PACIFIC SCIENCE CENTER

NCRL is excited to welcome back the Seattle Pacific Science Center for their presentation entitled "Rock and Roll". Earthquakes and volcanoes! Rocks and Fossils! Take a glimpse into the underground geological forces at play throughout the Pacific Northwest. This is an interactive science show.

NCRL PUPPETEERS

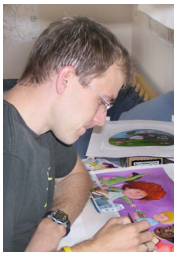
Once again the North Central Regional Libraries Puppeteers are hard at work preparing their special brand of humor and storytelling with puppets for their tour through all NCRL libraries this summer. NCRL is happy to welcome back Mark Wavra who heads up the productions. The puppeteers will appear twice throughout the summer at each branch.

Books On Stage

NCRL is happy to collaborate this summer with Chelan Valley Players who will tour to 20 libraries with BOOKS ON STAGE. Children of all ages will delight to the live performances of "Stone Soup" and "A Big Quiet House" produced by this well known theatre company.

reptile man

Get up close and personal with exotic reptiles in this program presented by Scott Peterson. This program will create an interest in the natural sciences and teach students about the importance of all animals in the balance of nature. You never know what fascinating reptiles might be introduced, anything from an iguana to an anaconda might show up!



Erik Brooks

Renowned Northwest author and illustrator Erik Brooks will visit 12 libraries this summer to talk about his latest books, read aloud and discuss the art of picture book illustration. Erik's great rapport with kids inspires them to draw and write and be excited about books!

Online Summer Reading Program

This summer we are offering an opportunity to participate in summer reading on the internet with the Online Summer Reading. Go to www.ncrl.org to join.
