VI. Acting Director’s Report:

New Business:
• Royal City: Had their first Friends meeting January 10th with 10 people in attendance. The land that is being donated is having soil samples tested and the City is requesting the removal of the grain silos before taking ownership.

• Waterville Library: Will be moving into their new location this spring. The current landlord has been notified - so it’s official!
• The capital campaign now has $925,000 in donations and pledges, with 62% of donors having given $100 or less. The group recently received a $25,000 donation from three members of the Woods family (Carolyn Ollikainen, Wendy Manhart, and Barbara Woods). These sisters are naming a meeting room after their father, Robert Woods, who was instrumental in starting NCRL’s mail order service 50 years ago.

• Strategic Plan Update: 501 Consulting will have our preliminary report completed by the end of February. They are currently identifying primary and secondary themes from the data we collected.

• Board Retreat: August 14th - 16th. Location options.

• Mail Order Library 50th anniversary: Art contest / open house.

Staffing:
• Susana Nieto is our New Entiat Librarian. Suzy is a resident of Entiat and worked for the library as an assistant as well as in many local school systems.

• Heather Inczauskis is our new Chelan County STEM Librarian. She holds a masters degree in science.

• Marlene Huffles accepted the position of our part-time Grant County STEM Librarian. She was previously our Soap Lake Librarian.

Branch and Media Report:
• Angela Morris presented the Youth Programs, Adult Programs, Community Engagement, Staff Training, and Media Reports for December 2017.

STEM Report:
• Chad Rosenberg presented the STEM report for December 2017.

VII. Personnel Guidelines: Brian Picchi reviewed the sick leave policy, and answered trustees’ questions regarding the education and travel policies. Denise Sorom moved to approve the changes in the Personnel Guidelines as presented. Kathleen Allstot seconded the motion which passed unanimously.

VIII. Department of Retirement Audit: Brian Picchi discussed the results of the Audit.

IX. Resolution 18-01:
Resolution 18-01: Levy Rate for 2018 Assessment. Alec McKay moved to approve the levy tax rate for 2018 to $0.375233840796 per thousand dollars assessed valuation in the library taxing district based on 2017 valuation for 2018 tax collection.
